

Summer 2018 Rising 5th grade homework

Dear Rising Fifth Graders:

I'm so excited to have you in my reading class next year!! We are going to have so much fun exploring different titles and learning what it means to be an active reader and exploring new worlds and words.

Your homework is to read The Liberation of Gabriel King by KL Going and complete some of the activities on the Bingo board. One book can count for two cells. See how many cells you can fill! Bring your boards the first days of school—we'll have a fun activity talking about our summer reading successes and failures.

See you soon!

Mrs. Flemming
