

NATIVE COUNSELLING SERVICES OF ALBERTA

HOME VISITATION WORKER

St. Paul, Alberta

Competition No. 1901

Closing Date: January 5, 2021

Native Counselling Services of Alberta (NCSA) is a diverse, dynamic non-government organization that is committed to the holistic wellness and equitable treatment of Alberta's Indigenous individuals, families and communities since 1970. NCSA is currently looking for an individual to work within our team as a Home Visitation Worker in our St. Paul office. This position is responsible working with and supporting families to achieve a healthy life style. The Home Visitation worker will perform a variety of different functions including flexible work schedule based on clients needs. The individual we are looking for should have a strong work ethic and work within the mandate of the organization. Additional training will be provided.

Qualifications:

- Possess knowledge and understanding of historic trauma and its impact on Indigenous people.
- Possess knowledge and understanding relating to Indigenous culture, ceremony and the approaches to healing.
- Should have experience working with parents, youth and children in their well-being and family resiliency.
- Must have experience with one to one coaching and mentoring services with caregivers.
- Experience in organizing, sharing and teaching circles that will be dictated by the family, which will include communication, ceremony and the use of ceremony on healing, parenting and rites of passage.
- Must be self-motivated with the ability to work alone and within a team environment.
- Must have good verbal, written communication skills with the ability to problem solve.
- Possess effective communication, decision making and problem solving and time management skills.
- Possess knowledge and understanding of using computers including Word, Excel and Outlook.
- Must have a reliable vehicle, valid Alberta driver's, provide confirmation of liability coverage for the position.
- Must provide a up to date criminal record check, child intervention check prior to hire.

Please forward resume, covering letter to

Manager, Human Resources
Native Counselling Services of Alberta
14904-121 A Avenue
Edmonton, Alberta T5V 1A3
Telephone/Fax: 780-482-7893
Email: marg-milicevic@ncsa.ca

While we appreciate all responses, only candidates for a interview will be contacted.